

Membership Criteria

Members of Palliative Care Tasmania should:

1. Demonstrate a passion for, or interest in, palliative care.
2. Hold values consistent with Palliative Care Tasmania and its organisational aims;
namely:
  - Empowering the Tasmanian palliative care and community sectors to assist people living with a life limiting illness, along with their carers and families, to make informed decisions;
  - Building capacity for health professionals, service providers and the Tasmanian community to provide high quality care and support for Tasmanians living with a life limiting illness, their carers and families;
  - Leading and informing the policy and research agendas in relation to best practices in palliative care; and
  - Helping strengthen and support collaboration to meet the needs of people living with a life limiting illness, their carers and families.
3. Not act in a manner that undermines these aims or the work of Palliative Care Tasmania.
4. Be willing to attend and participate in Palliative Care Tasmania events, forums and conferences, where possible.

Palliative Care Tasmania reserves the right to refuse membership applications should it determine that the values and mission of the individual or organisation applying conflict with those of Palliative Care Tasmania.
